

Family History Consultant Training

Family History Consultants are the key contact persons in the process of Turning the Hearts for members in the ward. They are responsible for implementing the plans of the Ward Council as communicated to them by the High Priest Group Leader.

The Church has provided an extensive training program for family history consultants that includes the following:

Motivation for Temple and Family History Work.

MEMBER'S GUIDE to Temple and Family History Work
INSTRUCTOR'S GUIDE to Temple and Family History Work
TEMPLE AND FAMILY HISTORY COURSE DVD
FAMILY HISTORY CONSULTANT'S GUIDE

Technology Training for Temple and Family History Work

FamilySearch.org/serve

Sign in with your LDS Account

Core Training – for everyone

To Turn the Hearts, Leader's Guide

To Turn the Hears DVD

Additional Training – Family History Consultants

Family History Consultant Conference Presentation – 2012 (New)

Training for Family History Consultants (New)

Youth and Family History (New)

Family History Consultant International Training Videos (New)

Family History Consultant's Guide

See the whole list (20)

Family History Center Training Classes for Consultants (local FH Center)

Conferences

RootsTech

St. George Family History Expo

BYU Family History Conference

Utah South Family History Training Center - Riverton Family History Center

5 Day Classes

One Day Classes

Quarterly Indexing Training

Area Family History Advisor Training (as requested by high councilors)