

Scandinavian Resources on the Internet

rickmathews2005@yahoo.dk

General:

1. www.familysearch.org
 - a. Research Guides and Maps
 - b. Data contributed through indexing and family history work
2. www.cyndislist.com
 - a. Variety of links related to country of interest
3. www.google.com
 - a. Translate features
 - b. Search engine

Denmark:

1. www.arkivalieronline.dk
 - a. Scanned images of Church records
 - b. Scanned images of Censuses
 - c. Requires Registration (the process is in Danish but with help you can still register)
2. ddd.dda.dk
 - a. Census indexes
 - b. Emigration indexes (LDS not included)
 - c. Probate Index
 - d. Other records
3. www.familysearch.org
 - a. Batch searches
 - b. Good search algorithm (known variations taken into account like Ane/Anna, Pedersen/Peterson, Jensen/Jensdatter)
 - c. Very helpful in Hjørring
4. www.krabsen.dk
 - a. Database of place names
 - b. Index of Manorial probates
5. www.sognetraef.dk
 - a. User forum
6. www.kms.dk
 - a. Collection of Current and Historical maps
7. www.danskearkiver.dk
 - a. Provides information on local historical societies

Norway:

1. www.digitalarkivet.no
 - a. Databases
 - i. Vary by locality
 - ii. Most common are census indexes
 - iii. Emigration
 1. Emigranter fra Oslo 1867-1930
 2. Emigranter over Kristiania 1871-1930
 3. Emigrantar over Bergen frå Austlandet
 - iv. Other databases may exist
 1. Tax Lists
 2. Church records
 3. Probate records
 - b. Scanned Materials
 - i. Scanned Images of Church Records
 1. Includes Ministerialbøker, Klokkerbøker, and Lysningsprotokoller
 - ii. Scanned Probate Material
 1. Scanned probate and death records
 2. Some have registers or databases
 - iii. Scanned Judicial Records
 - c. User Forum
 - i. Allows you to connect with other users
2. http://www.dokpro.uio.no/rygh_ng/rygh_form.html
 - a. Norwegian Farm Name Index
3. www.google.com
 - a. Type Historielag and the name of your parish to see if your location has a web presence. Knowledge of Norwegian geographical jurisdictions will help. The sites can include:
 - i. Church record indexes
 - ii. Online bygdebøker
 - iii. Local Historians
 - iv. Information on local publications
4. www.dis-norge.no
 - a. Genealogy tools
 - b. User forums

Sweden:

1. www.genline.com
 - a. Scanned church records
 - b. Requires download of free additional software
 - c. Subscription site

2. www.svar.ra.se
 - a. Scanned records (better image quality than Genline)
 - b. Census Indexes
 - c. Village and farm database
 - d. Subscription site
3. www.arkivdigital.se
 - a. Scanned church records (best quality)
 - b. Subscription site
4. www.lantmateriet.se
 - a. Maps
5. http://www2.sofi.se/SOFIU/topo1951/_cdweb/index.htm
 - a. Place name help
 - b. Old and new spellings listed
6. www.hembygd.se
 - a. Links to local history societies

Finland:

1. www.hiski.fi
 - a. Indexed Church records
2. www.digiarkisto.org
 - a. Scanned images of church records and some census images
 - b. Relies on volunteers to scan images
3. sukutilat.sarka.fi
 - a. Farm information
4. digi.narc.fi
 - a. Various scanned images

Iceland:

1. www.manntal.is
 - a. Databases of censuses
2. www.familysearch.org
 - a. All Icelandic church records have been indexed through about 1850.
3. www.timarit.is
 - a. Image collection of Icelandic Newspapers in Iceland and Icelandic publications in America and Canada.
 - b. Image text is searchable.